

Bryanston Organic & Natural Market Artists, Crafters & Jewellers Guild

The purpose of the Guild is to create:

- Shared Vision: Position and promote the members of the Guild as leaders in their field of creative art. Inspired by nature and the world around them, they strive for originality and uniqueness of style and quality of production, while being mindful and responsible for the positive impact of their work on society. They strengthen their bond of unity through mutual respect and support of each other's journey to financial independence through their art
- Participation: that all members participate freely and equally in building the profile of the Guild and actively support exhibitions and promotions held by the market
- Transparency and Openness: that all members act with openness and transparency to their customers, fellow stallholders and market management
- Trust and Integrity: that all members act with integrity that is worthy of trust
- Shared Knowledge: that all members share their knowledge and expertise to the benefit of all in the market and the textile industry in particular

Members of the Guild who have taken the Artists, Crafters & Jewellers Pledge display a Certificate of Endorsement in their stalls
